NOTIFICATION OF IAA'S PROPOSED TRANSFER
OF ITS HEALTH INSURANCE (HMO) BUSINESS
TO PRUDENTIAL ASSURANCE UGANDA LIMITED
("PRUDENTIAL")

(per Sections 75-81 of the Insurance Act, 2017)

IAA is duly licensed by the Insurance Regulatory Authority (IRA) as a Health Membership Organisation.

IAA intends to transfer:

- 1) its in-force health book of business;
- 2) employees of the Company;
- 3) selected licensed agents;
- 4) software, hardware and furniture; and
- 5) contractual rights and obligations required to provide HMO services ("the business") to Prudential Assurance Uganda Limited, an insurance company duly licensed by the IRA.

Both IAA and Prudential ('the Parties') have obtained shareholders' approval and expect the transaction to be effected on 8th May, 2021, subject to regulatory approval.

The Parties are keen to ensure that the interests of their clients, members, partners, employees, agents and any associated entities are protected; that Prudential has the expertise, desire and capital to operate the health business and deploy digital tools to address the needs of the Ugandan consumer.

Some of the key benefits of this arrangement include:

- 1) existing members of IAA schemes will continue to get medical services without disruption;
- 2) all customer relationships will be maintained as all IAA staff and agents will be joining Prudential;
- 3) insurance expertise and know-how from Prudential; and
- 4) deployment of digital tools to increase access to health care across the country.

This NOTICE allows all existing policyholders and/or claimants to inspect the particulars of the transfer at IAA and Prudential's registered offices, respectively. In the event that any policyholder and/or claimant of IAA should have reason to believe that they are adversely affected by the transfer, you are hereby invited to make a written representation, to the Authority stating reasons, within thirty (30) days of this publication.
